Listening to client needs and creating solutions that improve the financial status of families and business in Carroll County is Brandon's main role. As Bank Sales Manager of our Delphi location, his goal is simple; to give each client the time, tools, support and information they need to make confident financial decisions.

Brandon joined the Salin team in January of 2009. He has experience in every position from teller to Bank Sales Manager. Brandon attended Ball State University where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Financial Planning and Investments.

Brandon is actively involved in the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce.
