E-mail: b.emmons@salin.com

Phone: 1-800-320-7536 Ext. 8036

Brian is responsible for managing commercial banking activities while developing new business relationships for the bank's Indianapolis market. His strong background in finance and accounting gives him unique experience in supporting central Indiana's diverse business environment. His pragmatic and highly-focused style serves him well in the areas of strategic planning, financial leadership, real estate transactions, manufacturing and distribution clients, and family-owned businesses.

Before advancing to the commercial banking team, Brian was Senior Vice President of Accounting & Finance for Salin Bank.

Brian and his family make their home in Zionsville, Indiana. Outside the banking center, Brian keeps active in his community, serving various organizations including Habitat for Humanity, the Boys & Girls Club and the Zionsville Little League. He is also a member of the Indiana Banker's Association Finance Committee and a Board Member for Title Center of Indiana, LLC.

Brian holds a Bachelor's Degree in Finance through the Indiana University, Kelley School of Business.
