Salin Bank understands the needs of government, not-for-profit and healthcare organizations are far different from those in other sectors. Laura focuses exclusively on those needs. She is responsible for managing bank-wide government, not-for-profit and health care relationships. Laura works to provide innovative, competitive deposit and cash management solutions structured to meet the unique needs of this financial sector.

Away from the office, Laura is an active volunteer and member of the North Central High School Band Parent Organization and PTO and a member of the Indianapolis Rotary Club.

Laura holds a Bachelor's Degree in Marketing from Indiana University.
