As a seasoned mortgage professional, Pam utilizes a needs based consultative approach, allowing each client to make informed decisions that are tailored to their goals and desires. This approach makes it easy for families to understand their options and make the choice that best fits their personal circumstance. Serving Columbus and surrounding communities, Pam strives to make the application process as simple as possible by integrating face to face consultation with an intuitive online approval system that is available 24 hours a day via Salin.com.

Pam has more than 35 years experience in the mortgage industry. She has handled all aspects of the mortgage process from processing the loan, taking the application, underwriting, and closing the loan. She also managed a loan production office in southern Indiana.

Pam is an affiliate member of the Columbus Board of Realtors, a member of the local chapter of Business Network International, a member of Friends of the Library, and a member of the Home Buyer Training Committee with Housing Partnerships Inc.
