As a seasoned mortgage professional, Shannon utilizes a needs based consultative approach, allowing each client to make informed decisions that are tailored to their goals and desires. This approach makes it easy for families to understand their options and make the choice that best fits their personal circumstance. Serving Kokomo, Logansport and surrounding communities, Shannon strives to make the application process as simple as possible by integrating face to face consultation with an intuitive online approval system that is available 24 hours a day via Salin.com.

With more than 15 years experience in the mortgage industry, she has handled all aspects of the mortgage process. Even after loan closing, Shannon continues to provide knowledge and know how to assist clients in making the best decision for future mortgage needs. Her clients' best interests are paramount to her.

Shannon is actively involved with her local school through volunteering her time and resources. She is involved with Local Lenders Association and the Realtors Association of Central Indiana through the Community Service and the Social Activities Committees.
